To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot.

The undersigned, Guardian of Eva M. Wilson, minor heir of William H. H. Wilson, late of Brewer in said County, deceased, respectfully represents that said Minor is seized and possessed of the following described real estate, viz:

One undivided third part of three several parcels of real estate, viz. The homestead in said Brewer of the late Stillman Wilson, consisting of farm buildings and about three acres of land,—about sixteen acres of land in said Brewer on the northwesterly side of Green Point road, at the junction of said road and Wilson Street, known as the sixteen acre lot,—about one hundred acres of wild land in Holden, in said County. The above parcels being all the lands that said Stillman Wilson owned at the time of his death. Said Eva M. Wilson's interest in said lands comes to her by inheritance from her father, the said William H. H. Wilson, who had the same by inheritance from his father, the said Stillman Wilson, subject to the widow's right of dower therein, it being the same described in deeds recorded in the Registry of Deeds for said County.

That it would be for the benefit of said minor that said real estate should be sold, and the proceeds thereof put out at interest, or otherwise used for her benefit.

She therefore prays that license may be granted her to sell and convey the above described real estate at public or private sale according to the requirement of law.

HELEN M. WILSON.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER. Gentlemen—I think I have paid for medicines and medical treatment during the last twenty years all of three thousand dollars, without receiving any permanent relief.

Last May while taking a Turkish bath at 17 Beacon St., a young man employed there by the name of Wm Corbett induced me to allow him to apply a preparation that he had upon me, assuring me that it was perfectly harmless, and for a certain consideration he would cure me within thirty days from the time he commenced. In case he failed to do so I was to pay him nothing. I consented and he applied it nearly every day for five weeks, when the disease entirely disappeared. I very cheerfully paid him the amount agreed upon, and then asked him what this remedy was, and he replied that it was no other than CUTICURA.

Since that time I have had no trouble from this disease, and have not had such good health in twenty years as I have had during the last six months.

I have since my recovery bought CUTICURA and given it to friends suffering with skin diseases, and in every instance it has cured them. I believe it to be the greatest discovery of the present century.

J A TUCKER

13 DOANE ST., BOSTON, Dec 20, 1878.

NOTE—Mr Tucker is a well known citizen and has served the city in many important capacities. He is at present a member of the Board of Aldermen. He is also well known to agriculturists and farmers as the manufacturer of the celebrated Bay State Superphosphate.

CUTICURA REMEDIES

Have done for me what hundreds of dollars spent on other remedies have failed to do, and I do not hesitate to recommend them as first-class articles.

Yours truly, MARK BRANNAN

CARBONDALE, Pa., Dec 20th, 1878.

Skin and Scalp Diseases should be treated externally with CUTICURA, assisted by the CUTICURA SOAP, and RESOLVENT taken internally, until cured and for some time afterward. Where the Humors are confined to the Blood and do not show themselves on the surface, the RESOLVENT alone will speedily drive them from the system. The CUTICURA REMEDIES infallibly cure the most loathsome cases of Scrofulous and Skin and Scalp Humors, as is attested by hundreds of unsolicited testimonials in our possession.

Prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and for sale by all Druggists and Dealers. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents, large boxes, containing two and one half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin

The bills of the city of Lewiston for the month of June amounted to $17,000.

The school house in the Barker mill district, Lewiston, has been completed and frightened somebody, Thursday by threatening to disappear. One end of it has settled an inch and a half, but has been fixed up again.

Mark Lowell, Esq., brought to the Lewiston Journal office Saturday morning a ball of hair found in the stomach of an ox. The ball is three inches in diameter, perfectly round and solid, and weighs two and one-half ounces. It was filled from hair swallowed by the animal, and the action of the stomach wore the surface quite smooth.

The Denison paper mills, at Mechanic Falls, are running days now, but not nights as usual. The committee of the creditors of the company met at Mechanic Falls, Friday, and commenced their examination of the books and accounts of the company. It is stated that very little was due the workmen, and that very small loss will fall on laboring men by the suspension.

Mr. Carroll Garcelon recently lost a flock of twenty pigeons, worth about $40. They were valuable birds, one pair of them was worth $10. He has been in the pigeon business and kept them in a coop on Franklin street, Lewiston. They were found heaped up in a corner. There was an abundance of corn and plenty of water in the self-acting feeders and they could not have starved to death. He thinks some animal must have killed them.

An archery club formed last season by Lewistonians fortunate enough to be able to spend the summer by the sea, was the source of much pleasure to its members and their friends. Some of the less fortunate stay-at-homes, are now taking steps to form another club at home. It is designed to encourage archery practice, as well as to promote social intercourse, and the meetings will be continued through the year. A meeting will be held in a few days to perfect the organization of the club.

The store of S. R. Kincaid, tobacconist at Lewiston, was entered Thursday night or early Friday morning, through a rear window left unfastened. A caddy of tobacco, three boxes of cigars and other goods, amounting, as nearly as can be ascertained, to about $30 were taken. It is supposed that the entrance was made about 2 o'clock. A woman who lives near by saw some men in the vicinity at that time and saw the night watchman go by some time after. She heard no suspicious noises.

Cumberland

The News says that Mr. John Keene, of Bridgton, has bought the Pope's Mills in Windham, and has put in new machinery with which he is enabled to do first class wool-carding.——Mrs. Freeman Perkins of Bridgton, broke her right leg just above the ankle joint, by being thrown from her wagon last Saturday.——Charlie Lord, eight years old, son of Wm. Lord of Bridgton, waded into the mill pond at Berry's Mills, got beyond his depth, sank twice and, just as he re-appeared at the surface the third time, was rescued by Joseph Ingalls.

Mrs. Edward McMain, an old lady living in Portland, died very suddenly Friday.

Sewall C. Strout, of Portland, and Hon W. W. Cross caught about one hundred trout in Kezar River the other day.

There was a narrow escape from drowning at Skowhegan, Wednesday evening. Mr. Ed. Fuller was out rowing with two lady friends, Miss Squires of Lewiston, and Miss Mabel Porter of Portland. They wished to cross the boom and for that purpose the ladies were landed on the logs forming the boom while Comodore Fuller got his boat over. In performing this feat he partially fell into the water. This frightened the ladies and they both plunged in. Miss Porter managed to reach the boom and was able to hold on until she was assisted from her uncomfortable position. Miss Squires, however, fell farther from the logs and could not help herself. The steamer Una was not far off and Mr. John Murray, the engineer, seeing the peril of the young lady jumped in and rescued her. In so doing he no doubt saved her life.

Friday evening about six o'clock a gentleman and lady were riding through Woodford's when the horse became unmanageable, and, after circling around a tree several times, and striking several posts, dashed wildly against a house, throwing himself down, smashing the carriage and landing the occupants on the ground. The lady was taken up insensible and it was found that her collar bone was broken. She was afterwards conveyed to Cumberland Mills, where she resided. The man was uninjured.

The Portland Argus says: For some months past James S. Libby has been missing articles from his water boat, which is moored during the night off the Portland & Ogdensburg wharf, and Friday he caught the thieves in the very act. He found four well grown boys, between 17 and 18 years of age, on board his boat, having swam out from the wharf. As soon as they saw Mr. Libby, the boys plunged into the water and made for the wharf. But Libby's yells at them attracted the attention of officer Frank Merrill, who, before the four worthies could get ashore, had possessed himself of their clothes, even to their boots and stockings, and stood prepared to snatch the lads themselves as soon as they landed. But they chose to lose their clothes rather than liberty, and fled like deer on touching the shore. Their clothes await them at the station.

In Deering Oaks, Friday, 14 tramps deliberately took off their shirts, washed them in the sewer, dried them on the grass, reclothed themselves and disappeared from view in the direction of Saccarappa.

Friday forenoon, Mr. John Delacey, of Portland, was standing on a swinging stage tending the bucket where coal was being hoisted from a vessel for the Maine Central railroad company. When one bucket was nearly up the whippletree at the end of the rope broke. Mr. Delacey was guiding the bucket, and as it descended it carried him with it, he falling a distance of thirty feet into the hold. His left leg was broken below the knee, and the right one badly bruised. One arm was injured, and he received other hurts. It was a narrow escape from death. He was taken to his home and the broken limbs set and in the evening he was suffering a good deal of pain.

Knox.

Enoch Benner, for many years a resident of Chelsea, Mass., died on Thursday after a long and painful illness. Mr. Benner, who was favorably known among ship-broker trade, was born in April, 1861, at Bristol, Me. When a boy he followed the sea, but soon became interested in business at St George, Me., where he was engaged in the ship chandlery trade. In April, 1841 he located in Chelsea. He was part owner in several vessels. Mr Benner was elected to a seat in the common council in 1865 and 1866. He leaves a widow and one son.

Another fire was discovered at the woolen factory in Camden on the night of July 4th, by the night watchman, Chas. Burd. This time it was in a bag of waste in the card room. He succeeded alone in getting it out of the building and saved a big fire.

Sagadahoc

Some fishermen at Small Point, while getting their mackerel, hake, etc., out of their hedge last Monday, captured a shark—a big one, of the man eating breed.

Wm. T. Hodgkins' store at Bath, was struck by lightning last week and caught fire, which was soon extinguished. An alarm brought out the steamers, but they were not needed.

Mr. G. P. Richardson, the extensive wood and lumber dealer of Bath, met with a serious accident last week, by falling over a pile of lumber. One of his legs was broken, and he suffered other severe bruises.

Mr William H. Waterman, a native of West Bath, arrived home on Thursday, July 10, from California, after an absence of twenty eight years. He will probably remain visiting his relatives and friends, until next fall.

Washington

The Machias Republican says: We are sorry to know that Mr. Thomas Boynton lost a cow recently. These animals are too valuable property to lose outright. The manner of her death was rather novel. She was feeding on the brink of a gravel pit, when the earth gave way under her and she fell some eight feet, injuring her so she had to be killed. Only a few weeks since, Mr. Amos Boynton, a brother to Thomas lost a valuable cow.

Capt. Newell Robinson, of Machias, master of brig Akbar, died of yellow fever in Havana, aged about 36 years. He leaves a wife and two children and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss. His wife received a letter from him the same day he died written six days previous, in which he said he was well and that it was quite healthy at that port.

I went to sleep in the field among the turnips, and the three you found in my pockets grew in them while I lay there, the heat of my body causing them to shoot up faster than ordinary. I steal turnips, your worship! I'd scorn the idea!"

HOW EDISON MADE A BUG

One of my letters spoke of the possibility of utilizing the present gas pipes by running the electric wires through them. "How is this wonderful Edison going to get his wires through the pipes, I should like to know?" asked an unbeliever. Edison thought it over.

"Why, see here, Johnson!" he exclaimed the next morning, "I'll make a bug that will drag a wire through all the pipes in New York."

"Make a bug!" said Johnson, "what in the world are you talking about?"

"Well, I'll make a bug," said Edison; "an iron bug that will go where you send it and drag a wire after it."

His assistants drew around while he described his coming—or, rather, his going—bug. Next day he hatched a rude specimen of that insect as large as a coat button. And it stood out on the table and crawled!

It was constructed thus: A minute electro-magnet carried behind it a fine insulated wire, the armature of the magnet operating a friction pawl. Now, observe—every time the circuit is closed through the magnet the armature is attracted, the pawl clutches the sides of the gas-pipe with its claws, and the magnet behind is drawn toward the armature about a sixteenth of an inch. When the circuit is open, the armature reaches forward ready to take a second step. Thus, at every closing of the circuit the little magnet advances one step and drags forward the insulated wire. This description will be perhaps incomprehensible to non-experts, but more people know something about electricity than formerly did, and every telegraph operator will understand how this iron bug reaches out its armature claws and crawls around a gas pipe.

"Now, don't misunderstand this," said Edison; "it isn't at all likely it will ever be used to thread gas-pipes; I have made it just for fun—just to show that I can make a first-rate bug that will crawl around all by himself. I shan't make a cockroach, for there is no necessity for any more, but — By the way, I may make a toy lightning-bug some time. He could be made to lighten easy enough. I wonder if he could be made to fly."

On the 30 of last month the total amount of paper money in circulation was $734,801,994.78, and worth its face in gold. The purchasing power of this circulating medium is greater by nearly $9,000,000 than our currency outstanding at any one time ever before had. Yet the Greenback Democrats say the country wants more money.

The Judicial Appropriation act not having been passed in time to have official copies sent to the various courts, the Tennessee Court has been obliged to postpone its sittings until October. In Eastern Virginia the judge has ordered the jurors to be summoned under the old law and the legal quibblers see a chance to raise a question as to the validity of all the trials that are to follow under a law that is not in force. This is only the beginning of Democratic hindrances to the regular course of justice.

Gambetta in the Speaker's chair of the French Chamber of Deputies, says a Paris letter, is especially lacking in self-control. He cannot resist his old habit of retort, in which he was so happy while leader of the Left on the floor of the House. He is frequently betrayed into violent altercations with members who resist his rulings, and the enemies of the republic make use of this foible to set the Chamber "by the ears," in the hope of precipitating some disastrous action.

The death of ex-Governor William Allen of Ohio removes one of the most venerable of Democratic politicians, who renewed in his old age a career of ambition and influence from which he had been retired for a generation. He entered Congress in 1833 and was a United States Senator twelve years, his term ending in 1849. He did not again appear in public life until he became Governor of Ohio in 1874. He was succeeded in that office in 1876 by Governor Hayes. A man of strong character, he was always an intense partisan, figuring in his earlier days as a Jackson Democrat and latterly as an inflationist. He was connected by family ties with Senator Thurman.

The Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee are using a large part of the force of clerks and laborers of the House of Representatives and Senate for doing campaign work. Documents are being folded with Government paper and paste, and the Committee rooms which they use are lighted with Government gas. The Republican Committee, on the contrary, have their own building, and furnish their own material and help.

A soldier came to the Journal office, Friday morning, to learn the war record of Daniel F. Davis. After looking over the letters of his comrades he remarked: "These statements are as different as black and white. I don't see why our Greenback papers published that article from the Standard. I will say this: I am a Greenbacker, but I shall vote next September for Daniel F. Davis, if I live till that time."—Lewiston Journal.

The Des Moines Register is enthusiastic over the prospect in Iowa, and says: "There has not been so much enthusiasm in Republican meetings since the Great campaign of 1868 as there is this year. The meetings are as largely attended, as much interest shown, and as much enthusiasm manifested as in the days following the war. What is true of Polk county is true of the whole State. The party is to-day 30,000 votes stronger than it was last year."

The Washington Post, which always speaks for the ultra wing of the Democracy, says that that party, when Congress reassembles, will immediately begin the wiping out of the legislation of the war which Blackburn proclaimed as the purpose of that party. Those who are sent the speeches of Messrs. Carlisle, Davis and Bayard as campaign conservative documents should bear this threat in mind as they read those quiet speeches.

"PETERED OUT."

The disastrous effect of the hot shot thrown into the Kingfield camp by the fellow soldiers of Daniel F. Davis, have produced a complete demoralization, and all sorts of efforts are being made to undo their effect. As instance this: In his letter to the WHIG, Capt. W. S. Howe of Co., "D," 1st D. C. Cavalry wrote: "Those who witnessed his valor will remember him as one of the truest patriots who unsheathed a sword or carried a carbine in defence of his country's honor." A correspondent (?) of the Campaign Standard signing himself "A Cavalry Soldier," goes to work and eliminates the two words we have italicised above, and then spreads himself over two thirds of a column of the paper to ridicule the corporal who "unsheathed his carbine!" Could anything show a weaker cause more weakly sustained? If ever a foolish campaign slander "petered out" more quickly and completely than has this, we do not remember it.

The Arctic Exploring Expedition which left San Francisco recently in the steamer Jeannette for Behring's Strait, recalls another expedition of the same kind, sent out by the English Government about twenty-five years ago, which met with a singular fate. The vessel which contained the exploring party was named the Investigator, and attempted to make the north-west passage by sailing to the east. She got safely through Behring's Strait, but became locked in the ice in the Bay of Mercy, and remained helplessly there for two years. At the end of this time the Resolute, a vessel sent out by the British Government to search for traces of Sir John Franklin, arrived from the east in Wellington Inlet, and by sending a party across the ice for about two hundred miles to the west, communicated with the crew of the Investigator and brought them on sledges to the Resolute. The Investigator was abandoned and never heard from again, but her crew accomplished the north-west passage by passing over the ice in sledges, not in their ship, as was intended. On arriving at the Resolute, she was found firmly fixed in the ice, and the party were obliged to abandon her also and find their way south on sledges. The Resolute was abandoned in Wellington Inlet on May 15, 1854, and was not again heard of till September, 1855, when, after having drifted about for sixteen months, she was picked up near Cape Mercy, over a thousand miles from the place where she had been abandoned, and still imbedded in ice, by Capt. Buddington, of the American whaler George Henry, who towed her into New-London as a prize. Congress, having heard of the circumstance, appropriated forty thousand dollars to purchase the vessel of the salvors. She was then fully repaired and equipped at a United States Navy Yard and sent back to England as an "act of high international courtesy." After a very stormy passage, the Resolute reached English shores under the command of Lieut. H. J. Hartstene, United States Navy, and cast anchor at Spithead on the 12th of December. The enthusiasm at the event was unbounded throughout England. Lieut. Hartstene dined with the Prime Minister, Lord Palmerston, at his country home, and staid at Osborne as the guest of the Queen, while the other officers and the crew received every attention which national gratification could suggest.

In his remarks at Lewiston, on the occasion of the public reception tendered to him on his return from Europe, Ex-Governor Dingley told this brace of anecdotes, showing that honesty is the best policy in the manufacture of cotton goods:

Not long ago, I was walking on Oxford street, London, and chanced to glance into a window of a store where cotton goods were sold. What did I see there? Sheetings labeled "Wamsutta Mills, New Bedford," and "Androscoggin Mills, Lewiston." If I had had time, I should doubtless have found sheetings from every cotton mill in Lewiston and Auburn. I stepped in and asked the gentleman at the counter what he asked for both the English and the American sheetings on the counter. He gave the same price for each. I asked him which was the better, although the difference was manifest. He looked at me a moment, and said, "I suppose this (the American) is the better piece of goods. There's a good deal of clay in the other."

I was traveling on the cars in Ireland, and as usual, America was the subject of conversation. I heard a man say, "The difficulty is, we have been claying our goods too much, while these Americans have been making good, clean goods and they have been sending them to China and other markets and are cutting us out."

These little things go to show that America must be England's most formidable competitor in the manufacture of cotton goods, and many other kinds of goods.

The Pall Mall Gazette declares that Alice and Phyllis, of Rowley, have opened a blacksmith's shop, and employ other girls and work themselves, and blow, and forge, and hammer, and weld until the anvil chorus is their perpetual melody, and the masculine smiths are losing heart practically, figuratively and pecuniarily. There is no barrier to this feminine assertion. Pig iron and coal are as free as the inalienable rights for which the old Continentals in their ragged regimentals contended, and neither race, color, nor previous condition, etc., can estop the girls from the bellows and anvil when they seek them. But this invasion complicates the question. What of masculine rights when Phyllis crowds Fred from the forge, and sweet Alice confronts Tom with hammer and tongs?

The speculation in wheat and the unfavorable crop reports from Europe have had the natural effect of advancing prices of breadstuffs in American markets. Wheat, corn and oats are higher and buoyant and of course flour shares in the movement. In New York the other day flour was advanced from 10 to 25 cents a barrel, but the market is now less active and the higher prices are not maintained.

The Sacramento Record-Union, in reviewing the work of the four State Conventions in California says:

It is apparent that the Republican ticket is by far the strongest and most acceptable of the whole number, and it is equally evident that the Republican party enters the campaign under the most encouraging auspices. The H. B.'s have literally fallen to pieces after vainly endeavoring to strengthen themselves by effecting fusions first with the Workingmen and then with the Democracy. There is nothing left of the party, and it has been so badly and dishonestly managed that it can never retrieve its blunders. The Democrats themselves have frankly confessed that they have no hope of electing their ticket, and the W. P. C. has an equally forlorn prospect before it.

WEEKLY COURIER.

CAMPAIGN EDITION

For 1879.

To be issued Ten Weeks, beginning July 11th, and closing September 19th.

A NEW PAPER FURNISHED AT LESS THAN COST.

In compliance with requests by many leading Republicans and with a desire to promote the dissemination of Republican principles and to aid in assuring the most emphatic Republican triumph in the approaching State election, the Proprietors have decided to furnish the WEEKLY edition of the WHIG AND COURIER for the ten weeks during the Campaign at a price hardly covering the cost of the white paper. The first number of the Campaign WEEKLY COURIER, which is made up with the latest telegraphic and other news from our Daily, will be issued July 18th, and the last number will be issued September 19th, with a report of our State election.

The edition will comprise ten weekly numbers of the largest paper published in the State, each number accompanied by a two-page supplement, and will be furnished at the following low rates:

One Copy, sent Postage paid 25 cts

EXTRA INDUCEMENTS TO CLUBS.

Three Copies to one address,	$ .70
Ten Copies to one address,	2.25
Twenty Copies to one address,	4.25
Fifty Copies to one address,	10.00
One Hundred Copies to one address,	17.75

We have determined to offer the Campaign COURIER at this low price solely with the object of bringing to the attention of those who do not now take any Republican paper, the current information upon which a sound political judgment should be based, and the merits and claims of the doctrines and principles which we advocate.

The coming Campaign will be one of great importance, and promises to exceed any previous contest in interest and excitement. It is already manifest that misrepresentation, calumny and sensational reports will be freely employed to deceive the public, and it is essential that reliable and trustworthy information should be most widely circulated to counteract such misleading influences. Every citizen should keep fully posted concerning public affairs during the progress of the Campaign, and the WEEKLY COURIER, with its forty-eight columns principally devoted to current news, will prove a most desirable compendium of information to be put in the hands of every voter.

Send in Subscriptions at once.

The Republican Town Committees and all other citizens who are interested in the success of the Republican Cause are invited to render practical and valuable aid by taking prompt measures for placing the Campaign edition of the WHIG AND COURIER in the hands of every voter who is not now a subscriber. The price is merely nominal, and the efforts of two or three earnest Republicans in each town can readily insure a general circulation of the paper among the voting population.

CITY DRUG STORE. OPINIONS ON LONDON PURPLE. the recent great discovery for the destruction of the COLORADO BEETLE or POTATO BUG Dr. Colber of the United States Agricultural Department at Washington, says "I carefully analysed the 'London Purple' and felt sure that it could not be otherwise than satisfactory." The gardeners reported "It has given great satisfaction, completely cleaned out all the crop of bugs." This new exterminator, LONDON PURPLE, is recommended by the highest authorities wherever the presence of the beetle has admitted of its being tested, and having investigated the merit of the article recently, I feel confidence in its adoption by our farmers in place of Paris Green, its advantages being: 1st, it mixes readily with water and does not "settle," and can be easily applied with a common sprinkler. 2d, it is very adhesive and remains longer in effect. 3d, its color, (dark purple) easily marks its presence on the leaf, and last, but not least, it is CHEAPER in price. For sale, wholesale and retail, with directions for use by WM. E. MANN. Pure PARIS GREEN in any quantity, in pound cans and in bulk at lowest rates. Printed directions gratis, at CITY DRUG STORE. THE HONEST TRUTH With the above title, the undersigned will publish at Augusta, Maine, a campaign paper, beginning Tuesday, July 29th, and running to the end of the campaign; devoted to the "Honest Truth" about the MONEY QUESTION and the SOUTHERN QUESTION. The Honest Truth will especially devote its columns to the interests of the Laboring man, and will expose the folly and wickedness of the Demagogues and Democrats who are now seeking to array Labor against Capital and Capital against Labor—thus taking away all chance for the return of good times now dawning upon us. The Honest Truth will show how the Northern Democrats and Greenbackers in Congress have voted for everything the Southern Rebels have demanded. It will expose the record of Ladd and Murch, Greenback Congressmen from Maine, and show that they voted with the Southern Rebels all the time. The Honest Truth will advocate the election of DANIEL F. DAVIS as Governor of Maine. He is the first PRIVATE SOLDIER ever nominated for high office in the United States. He is a man of the people, from the people, with the people. Let's give him a lift, Boys! The Honest Truth will be handsomely printed with clear type, on good paper, and each number will contain fourteen full columns of reading matter; the columns to be the same length as the Lewiston Daily Journal. The first number will contain, with other matter, the speech to be delivered by Hon. John Sherman, Secretary of the Treasury, at Portland, July 23d. Terms of Honest Truth for the entire campaign, cash in advance:

FROM BIDDEFORD.

Suicide of Hon R M. Chapman

BIDDEFORD, July 14 This morning about seven o'clock when Mr. Goodwin, Cashier of the Biddeford National Bank, opened the outer door leading to the banking rooms of the Biddeford National and Biddeford Savings Bank he found a note on the stairs from Hon. R M. Chapman, Treasurer of the Biddeford Savings Bank cautioning him against doing any business at the bank until he saw or heard from him. Mr. Goodwin hastened up stairs and found that a large revolver kept in the bank was gone He immediately closed the bank and went to the Biddeford House. As Mr Chapman had not been seen this morning they broke open his room and found him dead in bed with a bullet wound directly over the heart, by his side the revolver which had been taken from the bank. He apparently had been dead several hours. A coroner being summoned considered an inquest unnecessary. For several days Mr Chapman has been unwell and probably committed the act under a state of temporary insanity. Mr. Chapman was about 64 years of age The affairs of the bank are considered all right.

He first returned thanks for the pleasure enjoyed during the inspection of the Delaware river, then spoke of the success of the resumption experiment, lauded the agricultural and mineral wealth of the country, and drew a comparison between the depression of two years ago and the prosperity of the present time. He then again referred to resumption, and concluded as follows: "Resumption is now a fixed fact, but we have got to stand by and not let the demagogues and tricksters cheat us out of what we have accomplished." The Secretary left to-night for New York.

The supposed break in the water main on Hammond street, spoken of yesterday morning, proved to be a leak in a joint, caused by the settling of an unused sewer falling down upon it. It was speedily repaired and the water again let on.

There was a smart shower yesterday, commencing at half-past four and continuing five hours.

The driving pulley of the elevator shaft at Katahdin Iron Works broke on Sunday. A new pulley has been sent up and blast will be put on again this week.

We shall please many of our readers by announcing that Miss Smith intends to conduct her Kindergarten during the fall term to commence in September.

A horse attached to an express wagon started to run away on the bridge yesterday afternoon, but was captured by a boy by the name of Danforth, who jumped into the wagon and took the reins.

A party of eight Bangor gentlemen took the yacht "Little Rogue" for an excursion down the bay on Saturday. They returned last night, after a pleasant cruise among the islands and speak in high terms of Capt. Kent, and his trim vessel, and her accommodations for small yachting parties.

THROWN FROM A CARRIAGE. Mr. William M Pierce, residing on Center street was out riding with three ladies and a little girl on Saturday evening in a two seated express wagon. While riding on Center street, the rear seat came out and two ladies and the little girl were thrown to the ground, injuring the shoulder of one of the ladies, and bruising the child's head considerably.

COLLISION. Yesterday morning, on returning from Northport, the tug Howell and the steamer Chas. Houghton had a trial of speed in running up the river, each endeavoring to be the first to land her passengers in this city. While running up they got into rather close quarters at one time, causing a slight collision, as a result of which some repairs will be needed on the Howell's rail and awning.

Yesterday morning as Smith's meat cart was coming down Court street at an early hour, when crossing into Hammond street where the break in the water pipe occurred, the hind wheels sunk into the trench in which the earth had been softened by the water, sinking to the hubs of the wheels With the help of policeman McCoy and some early risers the wagon was extricated without damage.

A QUEER FISH. W. T. C. Wescott has an odd fish at his store on Broad street, which is unlike any other ever known to be caught in the ponds of this State, and none of those who have seen it ever saw its like. It is in shape something like a hornpout, has two eyes on one side of its head and one on the other; its skin is mostly black, though some portions are white. It is really a queer fish.

A STEAMER FOR THE AROOSTOOK RIVER. Mr. Sidney Cook, of Presque Isle, the well known sub-marine diver and treasure recoverer, has been to Boston and purchased an engine which he is to take up to the Aroostook River and place in a boat which he is immediately to build for the purpose of navigating that delightful and picturesque stream. If Mr. Cook puts his usual vim and enterprise into this undertaking, as there is no question that he will, the success of the project is guaranteed.

THE WHITE MOUNTAINS EXCURSION. In our notice yesterday morning, we inadvertently stated that the ascent of Mt. Washington would be made Tuesday, when we should have written Thursday. The party, which is a large one and comprises some of our best citizens, as well as those from other cities and towns on the line of the Maine Central Railroad, will leave this city this morning at 7.15 in the regular train. The party will, without doubt, enjoy a most delightful excursion.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT. Mr. George Thompson and wife, of Frankfort, were out riding on Sunday, and drove up to a watering trough to water the horse. On alighting from the carriage, Mr. Thompson placed his hand on the horse's rump when the animal suddenly sprang to one side, toward Mr. T., knocking him down, breaking his leg and dislocating his knee. At the same time Mrs. Thompson was thrown from the carriage breaking her collar bone, and injuring her seriously and it is feared, internally.

MORE ACCOMMODATIONS. Messrs. Cutler & Eddy have been adding recently to their already extensive buildings at their dock on Washington street, a new shed for the storage of shingles and, short lumber. The shed runs out on the wharf at right angles to their main buildings, is one hundred and fifty-five feet long by twenty-three in width, and has seventeen feet posts. The building is "open boarded" in order to forward the seasoning of lumber stored therein. They have also built a nice horse-shed, large enough to accommodate two teams.

The excursion of the Handel Association on Tuesday of next week promises to be one of great interest. The objective point is Buck's Harbor. This charming spot is situated in Eastern Bay a little distance from Cape Rozier. The harbor is made by a small island not far distant from the shore. From a hill near by a magnificent view is given of Penobscot Bay with its many islands. The view embraces nearly one half of the bay.

We publish this morning a notice of the marriage in Kittery on the 9th inst., of Mr. Frank T. Cate and Miss Mary Lizzie Deane. The bride will be remembered by many friends in this city, where she was born, and long resided, her father being the brave color-sergeant William Deane of the old Second Maine, who was killed at Bull Run, and borne from the field clinging to his colors, from which he refused to be parted till death loosened his fingers from their clasp.

GOOD SCHOLARSHIP. Arthur C. Gibson, William S. Pearson and Benson Sewall, who graduated from the Bangor High School in its last class, were among the thirty-four applicants for admission to Bowdoin College at the examination last Friday, and were among the ten who were unconditionally admitted. Our Bangor boys make a good record whenever they present themselves as candidates for admission to the various colleges of our land, a testimony alike to their application and to the faithfulness and ability of their teachers.

CHANGES AT THE DAM. The Water Board propose to make some changes at the dam which they think will enable the lumbermen to run their rafts without breaking them up, as has been the case for the past few seasons, in the spring of the year, when the water is high. They are now having some stone-work near the pumping house repaired, and will have a crew at work on the dam in a few days. In the first place they propose to build a log sluice between the Bangor shore and the sluice used for the lumber rafts. This sluice will be from one and a half to two feet deep, about thirty feet wide and will have an apron extending out some fifty feet so that the logs will slide over the dam instead of pitching down perpendicularly. As soon as this sluice is completed it will be used for the rafts, while some changes are made in the other sluice. The Board have not fully decided as yet what these changes will be, but intend that they shall obviate the difficulties experienced by the lumbermen [illegible].

ACCIDENT. A man by the name of Alex. Ross, of Oldtown, recently met with a serious accident at Vanceboro, where he has been at work on the E. & N. A. Railway bridge. On the day in question, however, he was at work on a staging on the engine house from which he fell to the ground and struck on his shoulder and hip. He was taken up and carried into a house and as nearly as we can learn no bones were broken, although he was so badly bruised that they have not been able to move him to his home as yet.

THE FRUIT CROP. Mr. Alfred Smith of Monmouth, says of the prospects of the fruit crop, that the trees that were well fed last year, will yield a good crop this year, but the trees that were not well fed although they have blossomed well, the fruit will probably drop badly. The cause of the dropping of fruit he regards is due to there being a deficiency of organized material for the nourishment of the fruit. He has three peach trees which although unprotected last winter, did not winter kill in the least and are full of peaches. The pear crop will be a good one in Maine this year.

INVOICE OF YACHT STORES. The following is an invoice of stores ordered for the use of a small yachting party of two, who sailed from a city in the western part of the State, on the 4th and 5th of the present month: 2 doz. Bass' ale, 2 doz. lemons, 3 doz lager beer, 1 bottle brandy, 1 bottle bitters, ½ doz claret, ½ doz. ex. dry champagne (qts.), 1 bottle cabinet gin, 1 lemon squeezer, 1 bottle queen olives, 1 corkscrew, 1 nutmeg grater, 1 tin cocktail shaker, 1 doz. plain soda, 1 lb. smoking tobacco, 1 bottle bourbon whiskey, 2 bottles rye whiskey, 2 lbs. extra C. sugar, 6 bottles ex. dry champagne (qts) When asked if he didn't think the supply rather limited, the caterer said: "By jove, I didn't think of that. Just throw in a few more bottles of champagne and a few crackers."

FALL IN COAL. Messrs. Hincks & Co., who have recently gone into the coal business, have laid in a large stock of that article, and, as a portion of their storage room, occupy the wharf and store house recently occupied by W. H. Bradford & Co., and the store house has been filled to its utmost capacity, while the coal has been allowed to run from the open doors, forming an immense pile surrounding the building. The store house was supposed to be sufficiently strong to hold its contents, but at about four o'clock yesterday afternoon, yielding to the immense pressure, the northeast corner of the building was burst out, both the northern and eastern walls giving way, letting out an avalanche of coal down and out, running out on the wharf, and a considerable amount over the wharf into the Kenduskeag.

JOE JEFFERSON IN BANGOR. The Buskin Club, not satisfied with what they have already done in the way of providing first class entertainments for our citizens, are determined to do still better in the future, and to this end are already making arrangements for the coming season. Among these they propose to bring to our city the talented and renowned Joe Jefferson, whose Rip Van Winkle alone has given him a world wide reputation. Mr. Eugene M. Hersey, who represents the Buskin Club, proposes to bring Mr. Jefferson to this city, together with a full and fine support and an orchestra. As the expense attendant upon such an undertaking is very large, he does not feel justified in undertaking it unless he can be guaranteed a sufficient sale of tickets to defray the expenses of the organization, and to this end he proposes to start a subscription list for tickets, and when a sufficient number of tickets have been subscribed for to cover the company's expenses he will conclude the arrangements already in progress, and our citizens will have an opportunity to see this talented actor in his great specialty. We cannot doubt that Mr. Hersey will be successful.

FROM BELFAST.

The Potato Bug—The Recent Fire—Sudden Death—Political Matters.

BELFAST, July 14th, 1879.

Editor of Whig & Courier,

The hay-makers and potato-bugs are doing their utmost to improve each shining hour of the present magnificent weather. The cottages on the Northport camp ground are rapidly filling up and Belfast tradesmen are supplying the occupants thereof with goods, wares, and merchandise at prices which are mutually satisfactory. Since the celebration of the glorious Fourth, local matters have, by contrast, seemed slightly dull, and hardly worthy of mention. The Sheriff's jury organized to investigate the fire of the 7th inst. adjourned, finally, last Saturday, after giving the matter a very cursory examination. It is understood that their verdict is to consist of the statement that there is no evidence tending to show that the fire was of incendiary origin, coupled with an admonition to beware of wooden spittoons filled with saw-dust.

Saturday morning last, at about six o'clock, Mr. Ambrose Strout, of this city, died very suddenly, at his residence in Ward 5. Cause of death unknown. He had been suffering from a trifling illness during the preceding night, but nothing serious was apprehended, and no physician was in attendance. Mr. Strout was about sixty-seven years of age. He was an estimable man, a good citizen in every sense of the term. His unexpected demise is universally regretted.

The apparent calm still continues in matters political. Rumors are in circulation concerning proposed combinations among the Democratic Greenbackers. The most suggestive feature of the situation is the fact that they are no longer aggressive. The Republicans are united, earnest and cheerful. It is too early to forecast the status in September, but unquestionably the Republican party will enter upon the present campaign under much more favorable circumstances than obtained last year.

FROM DEXTER.

DEXTER, July 14th.

To Editor Daily Whig and Courier

Last Wednesday night, Mrs. Sewall Bates, a widow who lives in St. Albans, retired to her room as usual. The next morning the girl who was living there at the time, on getting up, found Mrs. Bates lying insensible upon the floor of her room, with a bottle of medicine near by, which she had evidently gone after, but had not opened. Judging from the amount of candle burned, it was pretty evident that she had been in this condition about all night. Aid was immediately summoned, and measures taken to restore consciousness. The physician, Dr. Clough, tells me that at last accounts she was not able to speak, or to move any part of her body or any of her limbs, except her left leg, having had a severe shock of paralysis. She has had two slight shocks before, and it is not expected that she will recover. Her husband died very suddenly a year or two since.

TEMPERANCE.

A very interesting temperance praise meeting was held last evening, at the F. W. B. church, under the direction of Rev. Mr. Hillman. The time was not allowed to drag, but was taken up by a good number of practical speakers, with singing interspersed. The social meetings at this church, religious as well as temperance, have always been of a very free and social nature, and it is doubtless a fact that much good has resulted from them.

At the regular temperance meeting yesterday afternoon, at Town Hall, the President was in the chair, and Miss Carrie Lee at the piano. Interesting speeches were made by a number of the brethren, and though some personalities and political allusions were noticeable, the meeting was doubtless profitable. Owing to the intense heat, etc., and the fact (as one of the speakers remarked) that it was good hay-weather, the attendance was not quite as large as on some occasions. These meetings have been held every Sunday afternoon or evening for four years.

There are rumors, which seem to have some foundation, that certain parties in this place are selling more or less liquor to be drunk as a beverage. I do not know who the parties are thought to be, or whether they are supposed to carry on a coat-tail business or to sell from a dark closet, but I do know that public opinion in Dexter is such, that it would not be healthy for any person, no matter who, to be detected in carrying on the nefarious traffic in any way. The business of rum-selling in Dexter is not now invested with that respectability that it once was, and it has also come to be regarded here as a positive disgrace for any man to be seen under the influence of liquor. We have plenty of officers here, who are always ready to execute any precept issued in due form against any person engaged, or supposed to be engaged in the liquor traffic, and, they all know it, too. If there are any here, who are selling intoxicants in violation of the law, and they are shrewd, they will cease doing so at once; for a "Petersburg mine" is being tunnelled and loaded for their special benefit, if they persist in evil doing.

At Dover I understand from one of the lawyers that he cannot get a precept served on a liquor-seller, or any that are supposed to be selling liquor. I do not pretend to know of this business in its different bearings, but it strikes me that a document properly issued, and placed in the hands of the Deputy Sheriff, calling for a search of suspected premises and seizure of any contraband articles that may be found, would call for some action on the part of such officer, and I don't think it would be a healthy transaction on his part, should he refuse to perform his duty in the matter. I am informed that next year the towns of Dover and Foxcroft will look to it that they each of them elect a goodly number of constables, to the end that the enforcement of the liquor law may not rest entirely in the hands of the Greenback High Sheriff and his appointed deputies.

DIFFERENT MATTERS.

The sociable by the ladies of the Reformers' Aid Society, last Saturday evening, at the Club Room, was quite a pleasant affair. There was a song by Mrs. Robbins, and a piano solo by Miss Lizzie Shaw, both of which were well received. Ice cream was dispensed at a nominal price, with cake gratis. The ladies of this society deserve the thanks of the community, not only for the noble work that they have done in behalf of reform, but for the pleasant entertainments that they provide for the people from week to week.

There is no preaching at the Universalist church now; the Sabbath School is held as usual. I hear it intimated steps are likely to be taken in due time, to again secure the valuable services of Rev. Mr. Battles, if such an arrangement can be effected. Mr. Battles has been here for some six years, and he would be a hard man for an average minister to follow.

Yesterday was a very hot day—had it been a secular day, much hay would doubtless have been hauled into the barn. It may be barely possible that a few loads went in as it was. Such things have happened.

Plymouth Lodge, I. O. of O. F, of this place, have arranged with Dexter Band to accompany them to Dover, in a few weeks, on the occasion of the Odd Fellows' picnic. It is expected that the occasion will be one of much interest.

Another "straw" to show how the tide is setting. Two young men were talking upon the situation. One of them has always been a pronounced Republican, through thick and thin. The other was speaking about the cry that some raised about hard times, and said he did not put much confidence in it; thought that all who wanted work could get it, and at wages that admitted of as good a living as at any time ever known in the history of the country. The Republican remarked that the "hard times" cry was an important item in the Greenback stock in trade. The other hesitated a few minutes and then continued: "Well, I am going to be honest about the matter. I voted with the Greenbackers last year, because I thought the doctrine reasonable, and believed that the leaders of the movement were honest; but I shall not vote that way again." This is not written for effect and with no foundation; I have the names of the persons, and could give them if disposed; and I want to say right here, for the especial benefit of the writer of fiction in this town for the Bangor Commercial that I can give names of individuals, and the localities where they reside, in connection with every case of change in political status that I have reported. The list of those whose minds have undergone a political change during the past year would be a long one, and, so far as I can learn, the changes are all unfavorable to modern Democracy and the Greenback lunacy.

I have been informed, and the source of my information seems to be quite reliable, that Rev. Mr. Curtis, whose death by drowning has been already reported in the Whig, was in the last stages of consumption, and that he could have lived but a short time under the most favorable circumstances. The theory is advanced that, although a good swimmer when in health, the diseased condition of his lungs would make it about an impossibility for him to remain at the surface of the water. Whether the theory is sound or not, I do not assume to say. I give it as it was given to me, and it came from an Augusta man who was well acquainted with the unfortunate Mr. Curtis.

I hear that millions upon millions of potato bugs are to be seen around and upon Moosehead Lake. They are on the surface of the water and the logs in the lake are said to be literally covered with them. Have they become horrified at the enormity of their crimes, and do they therefore seek to commit suicide? Whatever may be their motives, farmers generally will be pleased to have them all indulge in a vacation for a time, either on Moosehead Lake, or any other place where the potato groweth not.

Some special repairs have been made recently upon the tower at the stone mill. The ice forming on the roof, the water in years past has backed up and then passed down to the inside wood work, which has become rotten in consequence.

Dr. Mudgett has been making quite extensive changes and repairs about his stable. He has got a fine and pleasantly located set of buildings. His office is connected with them, and has its own outside door and bell, which makes it very convenient for patients and customers.

There is a good number of sailboats upon the pond here this season, and boating seems to be the popular amusement. Several of the young ladies have got thoroughly "ducked," and I understand that there have been one or two really narrow escapes from drowning. It is almost a wonder that more drowning accidents are not reported from this town.

We calculate on some big political meetings in this and neighboring towns in the course of the next five or six weeks.

The Corinna Republicans have another meeting to-morrow night (Tuesday).

A CLOSE FIT.

In one of my letters, not long since, I made reference to the inconsistencies of an iron-clad in this town, who is now and for the past year has been, an enthusiastic supporter of the Greenback party, and greenback nominees, and greenback administration. He is inconsistent in this—that he has declared on the street that the Republican party only has the temperance resolution in its platform "to catch votes," and this in view of the fact, which he must admit, that the Republican is the only party that has ever accomplished anything tangible in the way of temperance legislation in the past, he is inconsistent because he virtually indorses the rum sheriff of this county, who has said in effect to the scores of rum-sellers in a populous city that they may ply their hellish traffic unrestrained until ten o'clock each night, he is inconsistent because he indorses the platform of a political party wherein no allusion is made, in any manner or shape, to the temperance reform, or temperance legislation. I called no names in my reference to this case, and call none now, but an iron clad last Sunday afternoon, at the temperance meeting in Town Hall, saw fit to get up and publicly proclaim that he was the person described, and he at once entered into the work of showing the inconsistency of somebody else. He also spoke of our last Representative in the Legislature as the practical temperance man that all his acquaintance know him to be. I know of no one who wishes to reflect upon the personal habits of the iron-clad to whom I alluded, but when he goes so far as to say that the Republican party, which has so long been conspicuously associated with temperance legislation, is hypocritical in its temperance professions. he must not wince if his own glaring inconsistencies are touched upon. I wish to say here that I believe the gentleman of whom I have spoken has been faithful to his pledge, and is a practical temperance man, though decidedly inconsistent in some of the positions that he assumes. He took pains at the meeting last Sunday, to avow himself a practical temperance man, but said that he should vote just as he had a mind to. No one has or will dispute his right to vote as he pleases, and if his conscience does not upbraid him when he votes for officers that open rum-holes instead of closing them, it will of course amount to nothing for the neighbors to prescribe in the case. In the meanwhile, this principle should not be overlooked, that those who are themselves profuse in their criticisms of others, should not be surprised or feel aggrieved if their own short-comings are touched up occasionally by the omnipresent reporter.

POLITICAL

There are but comparatively few greenback campaign documents coming in here now. Last year, at this time, the post-office was flooded with them. A very few copies of Eb. Pillsbury's Tri-weekly Campaign Mud-slinger are sent in here, to parties concerning whose soundness the greenback managers entertain more or less anxiety; but nothing seen like the shower of Bangor Tribunes which came into Dexter last year, at a nominal figure which bankrupted the publishers, and caused Dr. Ladd to approach as near the use of profane language as his reverential nature would admit, as he paid several of the Tribune bills. I think the most of the greenback managers the shrewd ones, are really convinced that any effort on their part to elect a Governor or carry the Legislature will be futile this fall, and that they are not disposed to spend very much of their substance in fighting for something that they know well enough is beyond their reach. If old Peter Cooper, or some other of the outside Greenbackers wish to send some of their money in here the various Town Committee will probably put it where it will do the most good, but it can be depended upon, that with the outlook as it is now, Dr. Geo. Washington Ladd, who at present represents the Greenbackers of this District as one of the Democrats in Congress, will not sink any more money in any Bangor Tribune affair—not this year. Greenbackers are not plenty here now—that is, they are not seen much, whatever may be their real numbers, nor have many of them been seen since the day the Republican State Convention was held, when some mischievous fellow sat them up in business by telling that the Republicans were in a big row, and could not make a nomination—they come out then, to some extent, the same as the flies come out after a short season of warm spring sun; but since the news of Davis' harmonious nomination and since the letters have been sent in with such profusion to vindicate the candidate from the dirty attacks by that dirtiest of all dirty sheets the Maine Standard, the Greenback ring in Dexter, for some cause, have not cared to appear unnecessarily conspicuous as such.

CAMPAIGN ORGANIZATION.

To-night the Republicans here, or a part of them will meet at Good Templars' Hall for the purpose of organizing a Campaign Club, and attending to any business that may come up in connection therewith.—The Republicans at Dover and Foxcroft will meet at the same hour and for the same purpose. It has been a long time since there was so much earnestness manifested in the opening of a political campaign as there is at present in this section of the State. Every man seems willing to do his share of whatever work there may be to be done.

PERSONAL.

One of the teachers at the Hallowell Classical and Scientific Academy for the coming year is Albert H. Pennell, A. B., a graduate of Bowdoin, who has the department of Mathematics and Natural Science. Mr. Pennell was once Principal of Dexter High School, and met with fine success as a teacher, although he took the school under rather unfavorable circumstances. He can hardly fail to give the best of satisfaction in his new position at Hallowell.

Rev. Amos Redlon, who has been laboring for about three months in behalf of the Hallowell Classical and Scientific Academy, passed through here Saturday evening. He intended to remain at Dover and Foxcroft over Sunday, and then go to Abbot, where his family reside. Mr. Redlon has met with flattering success in his canvass for funds, and will continue in the same work for some time to come. In another communication I will briefly describe the character of the school at Hallowell, what has been done there, and what it is the purpose to do.

Compulsory Pilotage.

The following decision will be of interest to ship owners:

NEW ENG. SHIP OWNERS ASSO.,
BOSTON, July 9, 1879.

Thomas J. Stewart, Bangor:

DEAR SIR: I am instructed by the Committee on Publication to inform you of a recent decision of the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts, respecting compulsory pilotage.

The Bark Frank Lambirth, a vessel which has always sailed under a register, went from Calais, Me to Liverpool. thence to South America, the East Indies and Amsterdam; from the latter port she sailed for Hampton Roads in ballast, upon arrival there she was ordered to Philadelphia where she loaded coal for Boston

She entered and cleared at Norfolk and Phila.

Upon her arrival on pilot grounds off this port she was boarded by a Boston pilot who tendered his services which were refused, and this action was brought by him to recover fees for pilotage services under the Statutes of Mass.

The only question at issue was the true construction of chap. 281, sec. 1 of the Acts of 1873 which provide that "no vessel regularly employed in the coasting trade declining the services of a pilot shall be obliged to pay compulsory pilotage into or out of any port in this Commonwealth."

The decision of this Court is, that the vessel was regularly employed in the coasting trade within the meaning of the Statute and not liable for pilotage fees.

Your obt servant,
W. P. ELLISON, Sec'y.

Daniel Tolman of West Camden, aged 70 years, died very suddenly last Saturday morning

One Word Covers the Advice

Which should be given to nervous, slender and debilitated persons—Invigorate! Sedatives, opiates, appetizers, are comparatively useless The system must be built up with vigor and tone in order to the recovery of vigor and tranquility by the nerves A course, systematically pursued, of the leading invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, should be resorted to by those who suffer from weak nerves and general debility The stomach, always more or less dyspeptic in cases of nervousness and loss of vitality, is toned and regulated by this medicine until the organ acts with a precision akin to that of a steady going piece of mechanism Complete digestion and assimilation are, through the influence of the Bitters, followed by a gain of vigor and flesh, and the disappearance of biliousness and irregularity of the bowels, where such exist as they usually do Appetite and sleep are then regained. eod&w

SAD RESULTS

Traced to Overworked Minds and Bodies.

SUICIDES, NERVOUS PROSTRATION, PARALYSIS.

Heart Diseases and Sudden Deaths.

One after another of the great men of the nation are falling and most of them in middle life all victims to overwork Can we afford to lose such men? Those men died of nervous prostration in the midday of their usefulness, and in the last year how many business men and women have suddenly fallen out of the ranks either into untimely graves or to a worse fate The business men of the nation are killing themselves by over work of mind, if not of body, and we call it "nervous prostration" The middle class is suffering in the same way Overwork, the pressure of the times worry, fret and anxiety, are rendering us a weak and suffering generation No man would commit suicide if his nervous system was in a state of perfect health. It is inevitably the result of nervousness in some form or other Now, is it not time that we as a people, should seriously examine into this matter, and seek a remedy if one can be found? The nervous system must be sustained and built up in proportion to its waste and disintegration or we must suffer The facts prove that this waste is not supplied by our ordinary diet and living The refined manner of living now does not give to us in our food enough of nerve food or enough of that which goes to make nerve matter, to meet the demand made upon the nervous system, and the result is nervous prostration paralysis, apoplexy despondency, neuralgia, headache, sleeplessness and premature death We all know that these are facts, and he knowledge the importance of a remedy Now with all professional candor, I can say, after years of experience in their use, and sustained by the testimony of many thousands in this city and elsewhere that my CELERY AND CHAMOMILE PILLS do and will supply this needed material to the nervous system They are a nerve food Their first effect is to promote digestion thereby curing dyspepsia, secondly they enter into the nervous fluid and create nerve matter and in this way permanently cure nervous prostration, despondency, headache, neuralgia, nervousness, etc , by removing the causes of these diseases and securing the system against paralysis and apoplexy, etc They contain no opium or morphia, nor any narcotic whatever, and can safely be used for any length of time—The extract of celery is the great nerve maker, and the extract of chamomile the great promoter of digestion and nervous sedative but their combined effect is wonderful, indeed curing cases that have resisted all other treatment, even by the best of physicians Anybody and everybody I don't care who they are, would be improved by taking one of these pills after breakfast and dinner for a while People that want a clear complexion and smooth skin, free of disease must keep their nervous system in a healthy state Domestic care and business anxiety often make quite as serious inroads upon the nervous system as the higher order of mental work, and thousands of people are eking out a miserable existence, suffering from nervous weakness and sick and nervous headache that could be perfectly cured by availing themselves of this remedy It is certainly worth a trial in every case. The claims of this preparation are recognized by the profession I am glad to say, and largely used and recommended by them And why should it not be so? It is not a patent medicine. It is the result of my own experience in the practice of medicine As to my professional standing I will let the following letter from Prof. Samuel Chew, Sr , speak Respectfully,

DR. C. W BENSON

BALTIMORE, Sept 15, 1860

Dr C W Benson is a graduate of the School of Medicine of the University of Maryland While a pupil of that institution he was distinguished for industry and zeal in the pursuit of professional knowledge, and his examination for the degree of Doctor of Medicine was entirely satisfactory to his instructors I have known him for several years and believe him to be a physician eminently prepared to be useful, and also of unexceptionable moral character I take great pleasure in commending him to the esteem and confidence of the community the WHIG AND COURIER will continue to advocate and uphold the Principles of the Republican Party, while claiming to be independent, in the highest and best sense of the word. Fearless and outspoken in the treatment of all public questions and firmly maintaining what they believe to be right, they will avoid intolerance and make their appeals to the understanding rather than to prejudice The coming year will be one of the most important in the political history of the country, and the WHIG AND COURIER congratulates itself that the Republican Party of the Union will enter the year 1879 united upon the platform of Principles which that paper has steadfastly maintained while so many wavered Its aim will be in the future, as in the past, to give the earliest and most reliable information and to favor only such measures and policy as will best protect the rights and promote the welfare of all the people.

IN THE POLITICAL FIELD

ST. NICHOLAS,

Scribner's Illustrated Magazine FOR GIRLS AND BOYS.

AN IDEAL CHILDREN'S MAGAZINE.

Messrs SCRIBNER & Co , in 1873 began the publication of ST NICHOLAS, an Illustrated Magazine for Girls and Boys, with Mrs Mary Mapes Dodge as editor Five years have passed since the first number was issued, and the magazine has won the highest position It has a monthly circulation of OVER 50,000 COPIES.

It is published simultaneously in London and New York, and the transatlantic recognition is almost as general and hearty as the American Although the progress of the magazine has been a steady advance, it has not reached its editor's ideas of best, because her ideal continually outruns it, and the magazine as swiftly follows after To day ST NICHOLAS stands

Alone in the World of Books:

The New York Tribune has said of it "ST NICHOLAS has reached a higher platform, and commands for its service wider resources in art and letters than any of its predecessors or contemporaries" The London Literary World says "There is no magazine for the young that can be said to equal this choice production of Scribner's press"

Good Things for 1878--9.

The arrangements for literary and art contributions for the new volume—the sixth—are complete, drawing from already favorite sources, as well as from promising new ones Mr Frank R. Stockton's new serial story for boys,

"A JOLLY FELLOWSHIP,"

Will run through the twelve monthly parts,—beginning with the number for November, 1878, the first of the volume —and will be illustrated by James E Kelly The story is one of travel and adventure in Florida and the Bahamas For the girls, a continued tale,

"Half a Dozen Housekeepers,"

By Katharine D. Smith, with illustrations by Frederick Dielman begins in the same number, and a fresh serial by Susan Coolidge, entitled "Eyebright," with plenty of pictures, will be commenced early in the volume There will also be a continued fairy tale called

"Rumpty Dudget's Tower,"

Written by Julian Hawthorne and illustrated by Alfred Fredericks About the other familiar features of St. Nicholas, the editor preserves a good humored silence, content, perhaps, to let her five volumes already issued, prophesy concerning the sixth, in respect to short stories, pictures, poems, humor, instructive sketches, and the lure and lore of "Jack in the Pulpit" the "Very Little Folks" department, and the "Letter box," and "Riddle box"

Terms, $3 00 a year, 25 cents a Number
